

Foundation

First steps - the activities and processes to be considered in the first couple of years.

Progressing

Next steps - building on foundation activities, either through broadening application or deepening understanding.

Embedding

Developing maturity - the period when we are moving from creating change to sustaining change.

