

Patient deterioration New Zealand: Current state and future developments

29 - 30 November 2018

Holiday Inn Auckland Airport, 2 Ascot Rd, Mangere, Auckland

PROGRAMME

Day one: 29 November 2018

8:00am	Registration opens
8:45am	Mihi whakatau Matua Moari and Whaea Tauhi, Counties Manukau Health
9:00am	Welcome from the chair Alex Psirides, clinical lead for patient deterioration programme, Health Quality & Safety Commission
	Welcome from the Commission and ANZICS Karen Orsborn, director health quality improvement, Commission
Session one: Keynote speakers
9:15am	Matt's story, an avoidable death Heather Gunter, consumer and Karyn Bousfield, director of nursing, West Coast DHB
9:45am	Challenges for recognising and responding to patient deterioration Daryl Jones, intensive care specialist, Austin Health and Associate Professor, Monash University
10:15am	Morning tea
Session two: Celebrating what we've achieved - improving our recognition and response systems
10:40am	Clinical foundations Presentations from five district health boards (DHBs) on their work to implement improvements to their recognition and response systems.
10:45am	Jen Hassloch, quality improvement advisor, Nelson Marlborough DHB
11:00am	Laurence Walker, intensive care specialist & Luke Flynn, charge nurse Patient at Risk (PAR) service, Auckland DHB

11:15am	Jan Dewar, nurse director medicine, surgery & emergency, MidCentral DHB
11:30am	Emma Jordan, nurse educator & Jonathan Albrett, intensive care specialist, Taranaki DHB
11:45am	Sarah Imray, clinical nurse specialist PAR service, Capital & Coast DHB
12:00pm	Patient, family & whānau escalation processes - Kōrero mai Presentations from three lead sites on their work to co-design patient, family & whānau escalation processes.
12:05pm	Nadeane Spriggs, clinical nurse educator & Kim MacFarlane, team leader, Southern Cross Christchurch
12:20pm	Olivia Anstis, innovation & improvement manager, Waitemata DHB
12:35pm	Graeme Webb, quality coordinator child health, Canterbury DHB
1:00pm	Lunch
Session three: Looking into the future
Skills development for recognition and response systems Concurrent sessions offering practical learning (Workshop 1 – Jean Batten Ballroom) (Workshop 2 – Richard Pearse Room)
2:00pm	Resilience: it's not you, it's the system How to build the capacity for 'resilient performance' in complex systems Carl Horsley, intensive care consultant, Counties Manukau Health	Could your patient's condition deteriorate? Communication skills that enhance outcomes when decisions need to be made. Talking to patients, families and colleagues Anne O'Callaghan, palliative care medical specialist, Auckland DHB and Jonathan Adler, consultant palliative medicine, Capital & Coast DHB
4:10pm	Next steps for the patient deterioration programme Gary Tonkin, senior portfolio manager, Commission
4:25pm	Chair's summary of the day Alex Psirides
4:30pm – 5:30pm	MKM Health networking function An opportunity to catch up with friends and colleagues and mingle with conference sponsors over drinks and canapés.

Day two: 30 November 2018

7:30am – 8:30am	Medtronic breakfast event (fully booked) Join conference sponsor Medtronic for breakfast and hear from Randall Klem, who will discuss 'Post-operative monitoring of patients at risk of respiratory complications on the general care floor – a review of Australian and New Zealand data'. Venue: Richard Pearse room, Holiday Inn Auckland Airport
8:00am	Registration opens
8:45am	Karakia
Session one: Keynote speakers
8:50am	Welcome on behalf of the Commission and ANZICS Ben Barry, New Zealand regional chair, ANZICS
9:00am	State of the nation in Australian rapid response systems Daryl Jones
9:25am	Māori perspective of patient deterioration Tricia Keelan, general manager, Graham Cameron, pou tikanga, Marama Tauranga, nurse leader, Kaywyn McKenzie, regional Māori health clinical operations manager & good to be great navigator, Marie Tata, health navigator and Arona Smith, te pou taahu team leader, Bay of Plenty DHB Māori Health Gains & Development
10:25am	Morning tea
10:50am	State of the nation in Aotearoa New Zealand rapid response systems & patient deterioration Alex Psirides
11:10am	Panel discussion
Session two: Addressing inequity, chaired by Laura Ellis, advisor consumer engagement, Commission
11:25am	The deteriorating patient in a rural setting Ruth Large, clinical director, Waikato DHB
11:40am	When our trust in health care is lost can we learn to trust again? Heather Gunter, consumer
11:55am	A fair deal for the deteriorating elderly patient David Tripp, clinical leader, Capital & Coast DHB
12:10pm	Panel discussion and questions
12:30pm	Lunch

Session three: Free papers, chaired by Daryl Jones
1:15pm	EWS modifications in patients with a DNACPR order in a provincial New Zealand hospital Dayle Keown, house surgeon, Nelson Marlborough DHB
1:30pm	MET Call Physiology and Resource use in a Medical HDU William Blackburne, house officer, Capital & Coast DHB
1:45pm	An audit of low blood pressure in hospitalised patients requiring house surgeon review Jonathan Albrett and Jessica Hadlow, Taranaki DHB
2:00pm	Does the content of a form make a difference to resuscitation conversations? Dayle Keown, Nelson Marlborough DHB
2:15pm	Medical Emergency Team (MET) members' perceptions of palliative care within MET calls Philip Daniel, advanced training registrar in palliative & general medicine, Capital & Coast DHB
2:30pm	Choosing Wisely when patients deteriorate Ben Barry, intensive care specialist, Capital & Coast DHB
2:45pm	Afternoon tea
Session four: data, deterioration and dying, chaired by Alex Psirides
3:15pm	Torturing large datasets John Hewitt, nurse specialist, Canterbury DHB
3:30pm	Identifying dying people using data Daryl Jones
3:45pm	Goals of care and treatment: missed opportunities Emma Merry, palliative medicine specialist, Hawke's Bay DHB
4:00pm	Sepsis kills – you can count on it Paul Huggan, infectious disease & acute medicine specialist, Waikato DHB
4:15pm	Panel discussion & questions
4:30pm	Summary and closing Alex Psirides
4:45pm	Poroporoaki