WITH

HENRY MARSH

The Health Quality & Safety Commission is pleased to present 'Clinical leadership in health quality and safety', featuring:

Henry Marsh – top British neurosurgeon and pioneer of 'awake' craniotomy. Henry will talk about role-modelling, openness and learning from mistakes, making hard decisions and teamwork.

Martin Snedden – recognised for his strong leadership skills on the sporting field, at the highest level in sports management and in business, Martin led the successful bid for the 2011 Rugby World Cup, the delivery of an event that engaged the country and world. He wrote about it in the book A Stadium of Four Million.

Senior New Zealand health leaders will also discuss growing clinical leaders locally and nationally.

Topics covered will include:

- role-modelling
- leadership in engaging consumers
- health equity
- openness and learning from mistakes
- communication with colleagues and patients
- team work
- growing clinical leadership locally and nationally.
