

HEALTH QUALITY & SAFETY
COMMISSION NEW ZEALAND
Kupu Taurangi Hauora o Aotearoa

Open Forum: International Speaker Series with Henry Marsh

Wednesday 9 March 2016

Soundings Theatre
Te Papa
Wellington

Time	Session
8:00–9:00am	Registration and arrival tea/coffee
9:00–9:15am	Mihi Whakatau, welcome from the tangata whenua
9:15–9:30am	Welcome from Prof Alan Merry, chair of the Health Quality & Safety Commission
9:30–9:45am	Address from Chai Chuah, director-general of health at the Ministry of Health
Clinical leadership – rolemodelling
9:45–10:30am	Keynote address: Mr Henry Marsh	Clinical leadership: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• role modelling• teamwork• handover and communication• impact poor behaviours have on safety.
10:30–11:00am	Morning tea
11:00–11:15am	Address from Minister of Health Hon Dr Jonathan Coleman
11:15am–12:00pm	Keynote address: Martin Snedden	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The role of leadership and teamwork and the common factors of successful leadership across sectors.• How leadership and teamwork can be the difference between achieving goals or falling short.
12:00–12:30pm	Consumer perspectives: Libby Burgess Chair, Breast Cancer Aotearoa Coalition Frank Bristol Manager, Balance Whanganui	From ground to governance Consumer leaders guide and support consumers and providers to work in partnership across all levels of health and disability services. This can be challenging given the complexities of these relationships and the systems they sit within. Consumer leaders will discuss the challenges, rewards and future in supporting and surviving consumer leadership.

12:30–1:15pm	Lunch
Clinical leadership – growing clinical leaders locally and nationally
1:15–1:35pm	Dr Nick Chamberlain Dr Chamberlain is chief executive of Northland District Health Board. He has specialist qualifications in medical administration and general practice. He has management interests in clinical governance and patient safety, improving the patient journey, chronic care management and preventing avoidable hospitalisation.
1:35–1:55pm	Leanne Te Karu Leanne Te Karu (Muaūpoko/Whanganui) is a pharmacist who works tirelessly for the advancement of Māori and the advancement of the pharmacy profession. She is a member of the Ministry of Health-appointed pharmacy steering group committee, and is on the executive of the Māori Pharmacists' Association. Leanne has been a member of the Pharmacy Council of New Zealand for over three years and has chaired the Health Committee.
1:55–2:15pm	Prof Dawn Elder Professor Elder is a paediatrician with specialist qualifications in neonatal medicine and paediatric sleep medicine. She is head of the academic department of paediatrics and child health at the University of Otago, Wellington, and is deputy chair of the Family Violence Death Review Committee. She works as a paediatrician at Capital & Coast DHB.
2:15–3:00pm	Panel discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Nick Chamberlain • Leanne Te Karu • Prof Dawn Elder • Mr Henry Marsh • Libby Burgess • Frank Bristol • Prof Alan Merry (panel chair).
3:00–3:30pm	Afternoon tea
Clinical leadership – being straight up
3:30–4:15pm	Keynote address Mr Henry Marsh	Clinical leadership: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • communication with colleagues and patients • openness and learning from mistakes • making hard decisions • informed consent and meaningful dialogue with patients.
4:15–4:30pm	Closing remarks
4:30pm	Finish	