

Open Forum with Dr Karen Hitchcock

Monday 10 April 2017
Icon, Te Papa Tongarewa, Wellington

Time	Session	Presenter
8:15am	Registration opens
9:00am	Karakia and mihi whakatau Welcome and introductions	Peter Jackson (Te Āti Awa) Professor Alan Merry Chair, Health Quality & Safety Commission
9:15am	May you never grow old	Dr Karen Hitchcock Physician, Alfred Hospital, Melbourne
10:00am	Question and answer session
10:15am	Morning tea
10:30am	Consumer perspective on aging	Dame Kate Harcourt
11:00am	Compassion, respect, and the elderly in New Zealand's health care system	Dr Alastair Macdonald Clinical ethics advisor, Capital & Coast DHB
11:30am	Aging: A Māori worldview	Queenie Rikihana-Hyland (Ngāti Raukawa, Ngāti Toarangatira, Te Āti Awa ki Waikanae) Author
12:00pm	A national quality improvement programme: Reducing Harm from Falls	Dr Shankar Sankaran Consultant geriatrician and clinical leader, Whole of Systems Health of Older People, Adult Rehabilitation and Health of Older People, Middlemore Hospital, Counties Manukau Health
12:30pm	Lunch
1:30pm	Aging well: What do we need?	Stephanie Clare Chief executive, Age Concern
2:00pm	Panel discussion	All guest speakers Chaired by Professor Alan Merry
2:30pm	A perspective on end of life care	Dr Karen Hitchcock
3:15pm	Wrap up Closing waiata	Professor Alan Merry All
3:30pm	Forum ends	