

Beyond the numbers – Maternal and Perinatal Deaths and Neonatal Encephalopathy in New Zealand 2010

A PMMRC workshop on improving outcomes for New Zealand mothers and babies

Perinatal and Maternal Mortality
Review Committee

He matenga ohore, he wairua uiui, wairua mutungakore

HEALTH QUALITY & SAFETY
COMMISSION NEW ZEALAND
Kupu Taurangi Hauora o Aotearoa

You are invited to register your participation for this one-day workshop. The workshop is being organised by the Perinatal and Maternal Mortality Review Committee (PMMRC) and is supported by the Health Quality & Safety Commission.

Topics include:

Understanding potentially avoidable deaths and approaches to prevent them
Midwifery challenges in preventing maternal mortality
Interventions to prevent maternal deaths
Neonatal mortality and encephalopathy

Keynote speakers

Dr Jeanie Cheong

Honorary Fellow, University of Melbourne

Dr Judith McAra Couper

Lecturer in Midwifery, Auckland University of Technology

Professor Julie Quinlivan

Professor of Obstetrics & Gynaecology,
University of Notre Dame (Australia)

Details

When: 9 am to 5 pm
Thursday June 14, 2012

Where: Te Papa Tongarewa,
Wellington (Oceania room)

Registration: Registration fee: $165 (GST incl)

Early bird rate: $130 (GST incl)
This rate applies if registration and payment are received by 14 May 2012.

Go to www.beyondthenumbers.co.nz to register.

For more information please contact the Health Quality & Safety Commission.

Phone: (04) 901 6060 or email info@hqsc.govt.nz.