

Making the wise choice simple

Joint workshop of the Perioperative Mortality Review Committee and Safe Surgery New Zealand

21 June 2017

Icon, level 2, Te Papa Tongarewa, Wellington

Safe Surgery NZ

POMRC
Perioperative Mortality Review Committee

	Session	Speaker(s)
8:00am	Registration and coffee
9:00am	Mihi whakatau	Peter Jackson Te Āti Awa
9:10am	Official welcome and introduction	Hon Peter Dunne Associate Minister of Health
9:20am	Perioperative Mortality Review Committee (POMRC) – update on progress	Dr Leona Wilson Chair, POMRC
9:30am	The POMRC's report 2017: An overview	Mrs Cathy Ferguson Previous POMRC deputy chair, Surgeon, CCDHB
9:45am	NZ deprivation and inequity themes	Barry Smith Te Rarawa and Ngati Kahu Population health analyst, Lakes DHB
10:30am	Morning tea
11:00am	Keynote address: Factors that change practice	Professor David Story Foundation Chair of Anaesthesia, University of Melbourne; and Head of the Anaesthesia, Perioperative and Pain Medicine Unit
11:40pm	Abdominal aortic aneurysm (AAA) repair	Professor Justin Roake Professor of Surgery and specialist in vascular surgery, University of Otago, Christchurch
12:20pm	Discussion panel	Barry Smith, Prof. David Story, Prof. Justin Roake
12:45pm	Lunch
1:30pm	Workshop: Operative vs. non-operative surgery	Each group facilitated by POMRC / SSNZ members
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:20pm	Safe Surgery New Zealand (SSNZ) programme evaluation report	Hazel Rook and Gary Blick Project Team, Sapere Research Group
3:40pm	Surgical Safety Culture Survey results	Maree Meehan-Berge Project Manager, Health Quality & Safety Commission
4:00pm	Surgical culture and SSNZ – can we simulate our way into the future?	Professor Ian Civil Clinical Lead, Safe Surgery New Zealand, Health Quality & Safety Commission
4:20pm	Wrap up	Dr Leona Wilson
4:30pm	Workshop close	